ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

FIVE (5) YEARS PROBATION on Count 2 of the Indictment under the following terms andconditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from himself.
4. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of judgment imposed and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.

The defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.

USA vs. Kevin MartinezDocket No.: CR 17-00080-ODW

6. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs. The defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established an inability to pay any fine.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the Court shall impose a sentence sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the purposes set forth in paragraph (2) of this subsection. The Court, in determining the particular sentence to be imposed, shall consider -

The nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and characteristics of the defendant;

2. The need for the sentence imposed --

- a. To reflect the seriousness of the offense; to promote respect for the law, and to provide just punishment for the offense;

- b. To afford adequate deterrence to future criminal conduct;

- c. To protect the public from further crimes of the defendant; and

- d. To provide the defendant with needed educational correctional treatment in the most effective manner.

3. The kinds of sentences available;

4. The guideline sentencing range;

5. The need to avoid unwarranted sentence disparities among defendants with similar records who have been found guilty of similar conduct.

USA vs. Kevin MartinezDocket No.: CR 17-00080-ODW

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
